Extra Credit: During the semester, you may do one book report for extra credit. Book reports are worth 1-15 extra points on a test, depending on quality. You can earn up to 5 points for presentation and grammatical correctness. You can earn up to 10 points by demonstrating what you learned from the book. Book report due dates are chosen to coincide with course material. With permission, you can do a report on a book that you choose. If you use material from other sources, cite them in your preferred format.

Reports due with Test 1:
How to Lie with Statistics by Darrell Huff
Damned Lies and Statistics by Joel Best
Stat-Spotting: A Field Guide to Identifying Dubious Data by Joel Best
